

PHILADELPHIA

Woman killed by car

A 75-year-old woman was killed Saturday night while crossing Ridge Avenue near Walnut Lane, in Roxborough, police said.

Claire McNulty, of Mitchell Street near Pensdale Avenue, in Roxborough, was struck by a 1999 Honda about 6:35 p.m. She was pronounced dead at Roxborough Memorial Hospital, police said. The driver of the vehicle remained at the scene and the case remains under investigation.

Laborers group donates 20G

The Laborers' District Council Charity Fund will donate $20,000 to Jenkintown Day

Nursery at its Appreciation Luncheon at noon Wednesday, Nov. 12. The contribution will be made by Samuel Staten Sr., business manager emeritus of the council.

The council and its members have long supported the Jenkintown Day Nursery, Hilltop and Baeder roads, and its mission to supply affordable, quality day-care services to children.

NEW JERSEY

Camden man guilty in slaying

Marcus K. Perkins, 33, of Yorkship Road, Camden, was convicted by a Superior Court jury Friday of aggravated manslaughter and related charges in the killing of Vincent Latta, 68, on Dec. 2, 2005.

The prosecution said that Perkins conspired with his par-amour, April Latta, to kill her husband, who was strangled with a clothline in his garage.

Perkins took Latta's silver Chrysler LHS with the victim's body in the trunk and left it in Camden.

April Latta pleaded guilty to aggravated manslaughter and robbery, and will be sentenced along with Perkins on Jan. 16.

Coast Guard rescues 4

The Coast Guard yesterday rescued four people who were aboard a 21-foot boat, It's About Time, which was experiencing engine trouble in the Delaware River off Philadelphia.

The boat and crew were towed by a rescue team to the National Park Public Boat Ramp, near Philadelphia.

ELSEWHERE

Candidate's van fired upon

Someone fired several bullets into the campaign van for Bill Neff, a write-in state Senate candidate, when it was parked at a diner in Manheim Township, near Lancaster, early Saturday.

Police said that the van — the "Neffmobile" — had eight bullet holes in the windshield.

Neff says that he was picking up the van for a parade when he discovered the damage.

TONIGHT'S GAME

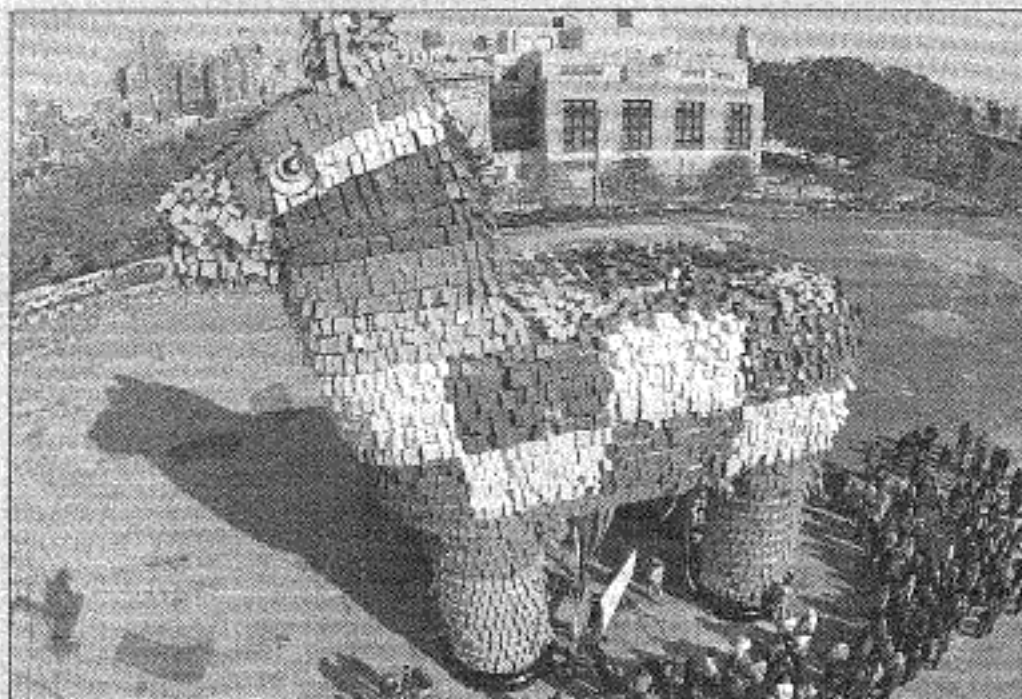

NBA
7 p.m. Sacramento Kings at 76ers. Wachovia Center. Comcast SportsNet TV; WIP (610-AM).

Gaming investigator resigns

David Kwait, director of the investigative arm of the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board, has announced his resignation. Kwait, a 30-year FBI veteran, will leave the Bureau of Investigations and Enforcement on Dec. 5. He didn't give a reason for stepping down. ★

— Staff and wire reports

PHOTO OF THE DAY

A giant pinata (55 feet long, 20 feet wide and 62 feet tall, filled with 8,000 pounds of candy) waits to be broken yesterday at Broad and Washington for a Carnival Cruise Lines TV commercial.

REAL PEOPLE,
REAL SERVICE,
REAL HELP,
24/7

1-888-751-9000

OPEN 7 DAYS • LEGENDARY SERVICE • HASSLE-FREE BANKING

Visit your nearest TD Bank, connect to TDBank.com or call 1-888-751-9000.

TD Bank

America's Most Convenient Bank®

535+ convenient locations throughout Metro New York, Metro Philadelphia, Metro Washington, DC and Southeast Davis

TD Bank, N.A.

FDIC

TD Bank

America's Most Convenient Bank®

WE DON'T NICKLE AND DIME YOU
WE COUNT YOUR COINS FOR FREE!

TDBank.com • 1-888-751-9000

TD Bank, N.A.

FDIC